Weekly Writing tasks

Percy Jackson and The Lightning Thief.

Grover is a terrific friend to Percy Jackson. He has looked out for him and protected him without Percy knowing.

Write a description about him. It needs to include:

- Looks,
- Likes and dislikes (his choice of food is interesting),
- His personality, what is he like? How do we know?

We have previously written an Ode to a Hero thinking about Percy; as well as an Ode to an Imposter thinking about Mrs Dodds.

Thinking about your own abstract noun, can you write an Ode about Grover?

Perhaps friendship?

Ode to a Hero

*Oh hero,
You are a bringer of salvation
With your Herculean strength and heart of courage.
As solid and unshakeable as iron-ore.*

*Hero: brave, selfless hero,
How grateful are we.
No-one is comparable to you, not one soul.
You are hope in times of despair; a ray in the mist of miserable uncertainty;
A true, and noble,
Hero.*

Remember, you have access to your journal on Seesaw, so keep an eye out for lots more challenges to come through the week.

Science – Electricity Watch the BBC video to learn all about electricity safety.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zjrrd2p/articles/z96ckqt>

Electricity is a very helpful thing; however, it can be dangerous too.

We have looked at what can be dangerous, now I want you to create a poster telling people how they can be safe.

PSHE – Anti Bullying.

As it's anti-bullying week, create a poster showing what we can do and celebrating being unique.
