

KEY VOCABULARY

Peak	The highest point of a mountain
Range	A group of mountains connected by high ground
Erosion	The process of something being worn down or destroyed over time
Topography	The study of the surface of the earth ; topography can look at the shape of the land, hills, mountains, valleys, rivers etc
Plate Boundary	Scientists believe the earth's crust is split into plates , where these plates meet , at a plate boundary, there can be mountain ranges formed
Machu Picchu	A famous Inca city built on top of a mountain in the Andes
Mount Kilimanjaro	The tallest mountain in Africa

Mountains formed at a plate boundary

Alps
(Europe)

Rocky Mountains
(North America)

Himalayas
(Asia)

Andes
(South America)

Edmund Hillary

A well-known mountaineer from New Zealand who was one of the first to climb Mount Everest in 1953

Tenzing Norgay

Edmund Hillary's mountaineer guide who also climbed Mount Everest in 1953